DETAILED ACTION

This is in response to a letter for patent filed on March 14th, 2000 in which claims 1-66 are presented for examination. Claims 1-66 are pending in the letter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-66 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kurachi et al. (U.S. Patent 4,835,682).

3. As per claim 1, Kurachi et al teach a method of providing an initial good (program) to a computer (central processing system) and converting (converting) the initial good into a modified digital good using unique key (unique key) data to selectively individualize the initial digital good such that the modified digital good is operatively different in configuration, but substantially functionally equivalent to the digital good (see figs 1, 4, column 1 line 25-35, 42-68).

Art Unit: 3621

4. As per claims 2-66, they disclose the same inventive concept as claim 1. Therefore, they are rejected under the same rationale.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. (see form 892).
